Anastasia Akimenko

Artist and Art Educator

Anastasia Akimenko is a talented Russian Artist and our newly acquired Teacher of Art.

Anastasia graduated from Smolensk State Pedagogical University, Russia with a Teacher of Art degree.

As part of her 5 years bachelor degree program, Anastasia completed extensive and comprehensive coursework in Pedagogy; Theory & methodology of teaching Fine Arts; Methodology of teaching sketching, decorative & applied arts, sculpture, graphics composition, perspective; Children's psychology. Her Graduation Thesis was on the topic: "Book Illustration". During her teaching practice at school, Anastasia succeeded in creating and developing a new curriculum - system, which system-ized children creative involvement in visual art programs.

She continued her post-graduation studies and professional development by enhanc-ing her graphic skills and completing certified courses in Graphic & Digital Design and Composition at the Institute of Continuing Professional Education, Russia.

During the early years of her professional career, Anastasia worked for several fruitful years as an art educator in a respectful Art studio in Russia. Whilst working, she was able to hone her academic skills and profound knowledge in Visual & Fine Arts by delivering and encouraging the learning process. Her students recognized Anasta-sia for professional approach to teaching and unique ways of engaging their creative minds in the word of Art. During exciting years of teaching, Anastasia developed a specific graphic design learning program for senior pupils, which is still widely being used in different Art Studios across Russia.

Last year Anastasia worked as a Creative Director of the design department in a multicultural company where she applied her imagination and creative talents towards illustrations, collages, posters, printing content and has developed a unique style of series of children toys. She perfectly combined knowledge of children's developmen-tal psychology and skills & academic knowledge in fine arts for designing artworks for children. Her drawing and illustrative skills were applied to a variety of works including, but not limited to: character design, graphic design and concept Illustra-tions.

She is passionate about art and design and able to inspire her students. She is trying to share her experience and knowledge in Visual and Fine Arts to enlighten and to engage people to the magnificent World of Art.
